In May 2021, "The Guardian" published an article regarding how TikTok was creating viral internet stars with millions of followers at their disposal. The app was reported to have created a new type of celebrity by helping users create videos that fit their personal interests and hobbies and then help them to garner followers through the use of simple technologies such as using facial recognition to identify celebrities within videos. The piece also stated that the app had also permitted users to make money by selling sponsored content or charging a small fee for following another user.",

The app has received criticism from users for not creating revenue and posting ads on videos which some see as annoying. The app has also been criticized for allowing children younger than age 13 to create videos. Some have also criticized the app for not using technology that automatically identifies protected material like copyrighted music in auditions of songs from artists like Mika Singh and Sonu Nigam. The company has been criticized for not giving the artists any royalties from these auditions. On September 19, 2021, The Delhi High Court issued a notice to TikTok to respond to a plea of a lawyer seeking its direction to make the platform's administrators take action against their users for allegedly posting obscene videos and pictures.",

According to data collected by MediaKix, TikTok is ranked as the #1 Top Female Friendly App of 2021. As a female-friendly app, TikTok has done well and proven itself as a great alternative to Facebook or Instagram. Female friendly apps have become extremely popular within the last few years. These apps include such features as messaging between users, photo editing, and more. TikTok is a new app that has taken the world by storm within the last year. It's a great way to connect with friends or even meet new people!", TikTok also contributes to issues regarding copyright infringement by allowing users to use copyrighted material without permission. TikTok's advertising model allows users to receive payments from brands to create, upload and share their own videos or posts, similar to Instagram. However, due to the difficulty of tracking the engagement that its user base generates, TikTok has been called out for the low monetization rates it offers its creators.",
